

2023 ECONOMIC IMPACT

$182 Million

in Annual Recurring Public Revenues to the state and nine entities including:

- $121 Million to State of Georgia
- $13 Million to Fulton County
- $17 Million to Fulton County Schools
- $13 Million to City of South Fulton

$50 Million

in Annual Property Taxes to 10 jurisdictions

77,000 Jobs

supported statewide both directly and indirectly

$115 Million

in Income Taxes to State of Georgia

$123 Million

in Retail Sales in 2022 generating $10 Million in sales taxes revenues

$46 Million

CID Investment Impact since its inception in 2010

1,000+ Businesses

26,000+ Jobs

$2.1 Billion in Payroll represents 3% of all jobs in Fulton County

55 Million SF

of Industrial Inventory

Largest industrial corridor in the eastern United States

4,800 acres of land

90% industrial

554 industrial buildings

The CID

A self-taxing organization, the CID's revitalization and improvement programs are accomplished through a public-private partnership. Working with local and state agencies, the CID leverages funds and advances work to keep the District safe, clean, accessible and commercially competitive.